

Now that we have thought up our own, let's have a go at putting them into sentences.

Common Nouns

1. Rachel and Harriet threw the _____ back and forth across the playground.
2. Peter was tired, he couldn't wait to get home and collapse on his _____.
3. Jemma packed all of her _____ into a big _____ so that she would be ready for her holiday the following morning.

Proper Nouns

1. I can't wait to start my new school today; it's called _____.
2. Kelly shouted across the field to her friend _____, but he didn't hear.
3. David and his family were on the plane, about to set off for the far away country _____.

Abstract Nouns

1. Mel lets Sanjay put a blindfold on her and lead her to her surprise birthday present because they have a friendship that is full of t__st.
2. Fatimah runs a bubble bath and puts candles all around the edge; she needs some re_____ion time.
3. A mother gives birth to a beautiful baby boy and cradles him; her heart is filled with _____.

Great!

Think you know the difference between the three types now?
Excellent, try and find which type of noun is used here, CIRCLE IT and write the correct type.

Don't be put off if there's more than one of the same type of noun in one sentence.

1. The street was empty except for the milky lights pouring out of the windows.

This sentence uses _____ nouns.

2. We played on our iPhones for half an hour, then did something else.

This sentence uses _____ nouns.

3. Microsoft Word helps me to get my projects done in time.

This sentence uses _____ nouns.

4. Both of us had a biscuit with our tea.

This sentence uses _____ nouns.

5. I was rewarded very well for my bravery.

This sentence uses _____ nouns.

Brilliant work. Your homework detective task is to find out what COLLECTIVE NOUNS are. If you have access to the internet, this is a great way to get information- if not, ask your parents, teachers, or consult books! Try a dictionary if you can!

When you've found the meaning, write it here:

Collective Nouns are....

An example is....