News from this week

Remembrance

I was incredibly proud of the whole school this morning when they came into the hall for our act of remembrance. They entered calmly and showing respect for the occasion. All children maintained the silence in the hall and we talked about how difficult it would have been in the time of the First World War when communication between men serving in the armed forces and their families at home was so difficult.

The children of the School Council visited the poppy cascade on Monday at the Minster. Again, I was proud of their behaviour during this event.

Information for next week

Odd Socks Day

Next week is Anti-bullying week. To mark the start of this, we will be having an odd socks day on Monday. The odder the better! Long and short, stripey and spotty, different colours, thick and fluffy, anything goes! The idea is that it celebrates the fact that It's okay to be different!

Children in Need day

It is Children in Need on Friday. Children can come in non-uniform for the day. If you would like to donate to Children in Need, there will be a bucket collection at the gate at the beginning and end of the day. There is no obligation to donate as we recognise that some families are struggling financially.

Book Fair

The Book Fair has arrived ready for opening next week. All classes will be able to visit the book fair during school hours to have a look at the books. If you wish to order books using the leaflet that has been sent home, they need to be ordered by Thursday morning so that we can organise these books for you before it is picked up on Friday. If you would rather buy books in person, please bring cash if at all possible and visit the book fair after school each day in the hall until Thursday. Entry will be via the hall fire door.

Other Information

PE Hoodies

We have had a number of requests for PE hoodies now that the first order has arrived. We are therefore submitting a new order before Christmas. If you would like to order one, you need to go to School Gateway and place an order. The orders will close on 16th November which is next Wednesday. After this, it is unlikely that we will do another order until near Easter time.

Reception 2023 information

Nursery parents should have received information from the Local Authority via us so should have the information needed for applying for a school place in September. Please remember that all nursery parents do need to apply for a school place whether you are hoping to stay at Withinfields or not. If you need any help with the process, please get in touch.
